

Lecture series hosted by The Woman's Club of Pewaukee (GFWC). Open to all who enjoy Pewaukee Lake for the many opportunities it offers with over 2,400 acres of recreational space. All topics will pertain to Pewaukee Lake of interest to the birds' lovers, fishing enthusiasts, nature lovers and history seekers.

Speakers cover in depth ideas regarding nature, geology, water resources, and history and all information regards Pewaukee Lake. These speakers are experts in their fields bringing the smartest, most engaging, and in-depth knowledge.

The lecture series may also provide opportunities for attendees to network with the speakers and other attendees, best of all the Lectures are FREE.

Pewaukee Public Library April 8, 2025, 6:30 PM

Rachel Sabre, WIDNR Stream Biologist Topic: Pewaukee River/Lake health

Pewaukee Public Library May 21, 2025, 6:30 PM

Charlie Shong, The Pewaukee River Partners Topic: What the Partnership is and its projects

